

National Center for Pavement Preservation Conference 2016

Todd J. Kinney, P.E.
Clinton County Engineer
Clinton, Iowa
NACE Pavement Preservation Committee Chair

PAVEMENT PRESERVATION NACE PERSPECTIVE

- Importance of Pavement Preservation to Counties
- Issues Facing NACE Members
- NACE Pavement Preservation Committee Activities

WHY IS PAVEMENT PRESERVATION IMPORTANT TO COUNTIES?

- Road system size (45% of roads in US)
- Budget constraints
- Worst first mentality not sustainable

ISSUES FACING NACE MEMBERS

- Elected officials and funding
- Public perception
- Contractor perception

NACE COMMITTEE ACTIVITIES

- 2014 NACE conference focus
- How to start a program
- Educating policy and decision makers
- County success stories
- Highway Network Health Check

A Quick Check of Your Highway Network Health

FHWA Office of Asset Management

NACE COMMITTEE ACTIVITIES

- 2015 NACE conference focus
- Pavement Preservation Basics
- Right Road, Right Treatment, Right Time
- Pavement Management software options
- How to implement a plan

NACE COMMITTEE ACTIVITIES

- 2016 NACE conference focus
- Research updates “Prove it works”
- Panel discussion regarding various methods
- Utilize NACE member experience
- New and innovative methods

NACE COMMITTEE ACTIVITIES

- Building clearing house website
- Leverage NACE member experience
- Links to other sites (NCPP, ISSA, etc...)
- Improve member knowledge, training and decision making

QUESTIONS?

